

BCBU Master's Programmes in PetrSU

Murmansk 2-3 November 2010

Five BCBU programmes

- Comparative Social Work (CSW)
- Software and Systems Development in Global Environment (GS3D)
- Law
- Environmental Engineering (BEE)
- Circumpolar Health and Well-being

Barents Master's Program on Environmental Engineering (BEE)

General information

- The University joined the BEE programme in March 2010.
- Chair of water-supply, hydraulics and water drain is responsible for the developing of the programme in Environmental Engineering (BEE).

Teachers and students mobility

- In May 3 teachers and 3 students from the Faculty of Industrial and Civil Engineering took part in the seminar "Environmental Issues of Barents Region".

"Environmental Issues of Barents Region"

Software and Systems Development in Global Environment

General information

- The chair of computer science and software is responsible for the developing of master programme in GS3D
- PetrSU is a full member of the BCBU in GS3D.
- Federally recognized Master's degree.

Teachers and students mobility

- Participation in winter school in Pomor University in February 2010
- Exchange students at Oulu University.

Joint courses development

"Multimedia Business Presentations" (senior lecture N.Moskin)

Social Work

General information

- The chair of Social work is responsible for the developing of the programme in Comparative social work.
- PetrSU is an associated member of the programme.

Joint courses development

- "Social work with Youth, Families and Child Protection".

Law programme

Title: “Legal base of the sustainable development of the North-West of Russia and Northern Europe”

The curriculum would cover:

- the legal issues of the statute of Arctic;
- indigenous people’s rights;
- ecological law;
- development of the state and municipal management on the Northern territories.

Challenges

- Marketing of the programmes;
- Recruitment of students;
- Developing more distance courses in English.

Thank you for attention!

